general end user software license conditions

General End-User Software License Conditions

The following terms used hereafter shall have the meaning set forth below:

- I. Agreement: The supply agreement based on which a right and license to use software is provided to the Purchaser (hereinafter referred to as „Licensee“) of the hardware goods, including the Terms and Conditions of Sale and Software License, containing the General end-user software license conditions as described thereafter, as well as all amendments thereto and agreed to in writing between the parties.
- II. Cover: The part of the supply agreement which describes, among other things, the parties thereto and specifies the Designated Hardware/System and Licensed Software.
- III. Licensed Software: Computer programs specified in the supply agreement covering application, system and test functions, including copies thereof made in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, instructions and information provided on firmware carriers and in the supporting documentation necessary to effectively use the computer programs. Test functions are understood to cover installation, calibration and measurement to verify that the system is in good working condition, but excluding any further diagnostic functions such as troubleshooting, verification after repair, etc.
- IV. Designated Hardware/System: Shall mean the Hardware / System as supplied by Digital Film Technology GmbH and as identified on the Cover.
- V. Product Data: Description of functionality of a specific software product or option, as described by Digital Film Technology GmbH.

Conditions

1. License

Subject to the fulfilment of the terms and conditions contained herein, Digital Film Technology GmbH hereby grants to the Licensee a non-transferable and non-exclusive license to use the Licensed Software on the Designated Hardware/System. The use of other software provided by Digital Film Technology GmbH to Licensee, e.g. for the purpose of preventive/ corrective maintenance, is not included.

2. License Fee and Payment

The license fee shall be part of the sales price of the total equipment. The payment terms of the Agreement will be applicable.

3. Reservations

(a) All software, including the Licensed Software and any copies thereof shall at all times remain the sole and exclusive property of Digital Film Technology GmbH (unless otherwise indicated).

(b) Licensee acknowledges being aware that the Licensed Software is proprietary to Digital Film Technology GmbH and that Digital Film Technology GmbH may suffer economic harm if the Licensed Software is made available to third parties. The Licensee agrees not to disclose, transfer, assign or make available the Licensed Software or copies thereof, in any form, in whole or in part, to any other party, person or entity without the prior written consent of Digital Film Technology GmbH.

(c) The Licensed Software shall be used by Licensee only at the location of Licensee indicated on the Cover, unless it pertains to a mobile system.

(d) The Licensed Software shall be used by Licensee only on the Designated Hardware/System. A separate license agreement is required for any other designated hardware/system(s) on which the Licensed Software is to be used. The Licensee acknowledges being aware that the Licensed Software licensed hereunder is unique to the product and product hardware configuration and expressly assumes the risks associated with any unauthorized use or attempt to use the Licensed Software by its personnel or others with equipment other than the Designated Hardware/System for which it has been licensed under this Agreement.

(e) The Licensee may copy or have 1 (one) copy available in machine readable form for backup and archival purposes only as is necessary to support the Licensee's own use of the Licensed Software on the Designated Hardware/ System. The Licensee agrees not to copy or otherwise reproduce the Licensed Software or any part thereof for other purposes without prior written authorization from Digital Film Technology GmbH. In as far as copying is allowed under this agreement, The Licensee shall not erase, delete or otherwise remove the Digital Film Technology GmbH copyright notice and other legend(s), if any, contained on the Licensed Software to such reproductions or copies. All restrictions in this Agreement relating to the use and disclosure of the Licensed Software shall apply to any such reproduction or copies of the Licensed Software.

(f) The Licensed Software (other than documentation) is to be used in machine readable form only.

(g) The Licensee shall not cause or permit the Licensed Software, or any part thereof, to be used by any person other than either Digital Film Technology GmbH service personnel or the officers, employees, and agents of the Licensee engaged in the business activities of the Licensee at the location referred to herein. The Licensee agrees that it shall cause each authorized person who uses the Licensed Software to adhere in particular to the terms and conditions specified in Article 3 and 4 hereof.

4. Modifications and Improvements

(a) The Licensee shall not modify, adapt, correct errors, translate, reverse engineer, decompile, disassemble or rent out the Licensed Software, or create derivative works based on the Licensed Software or have such work carried out without the prior written consent of Digital Film Technology GmbH.

(b) If the Licensee modifies the Licensed Software in any manner, all warranties associated with the Licensed Software and Designated Hardware/System(s) shall become null and void. Nevertheless, if Licensee or any of its officers, employees or agents devise or acquire any improvements in the Licensed Software, and if such improvements are voluntarily disclosed to Digital Film Technology GmbH, Digital Film Technology GmbH shall have a nonexclusive, royalty-free license to use such improvement and the right to grant sublicenses thereto.

(c) Digital Film Technology GmbH may, from time to time, create and license updates and improvements of the Licensed Software. Digital Film Technology GmbH may make available such updates and improvements of the Licensed Software at Digital Film Technology GmbH published rates provided, the Licensee has upgraded its system to the previous Software releases. Unless explicitly agreed otherwise, delivery of the said Licensed Software will automatically be subject to the terms and conditions of Digital Film Technology GmbH's prevailing standard end-user software license conditions at the time of signing the K4.

(d) Digital Film Technology GmbH has no obligation to furnish any assistance, support, maintenance, new releases, or anything else except if and to the extent Digital Film Technology GmbH has explicitly agreed thereto in writing.

5. Third Parties Software

In case of delivery of third party software under the Agreement, it is understood that the license conditions of such third parties will be applicable.

6. Term and Termination

This Agreement shall continue for as long as Licensee utilizes the Designated Hardware /

System(s) specified on the Cover, except that Digital Film Technology GmbH may terminate this Agreement upon thirty (30) days written notice to Licensee in the event of any breach by Licensee of any material term, covenant, or condition contained herein, provided Digital Film Technology GmbH has given Licensee a written warning specifying such breach and Licensee has failed to remedy such breach within fifteen (15) working days from the date of such notice or within such longer period as may be specified in said notice. Such termination shall not relieve the Licensee of any of its obligations incurred prior to such termination, and shall not impair any of Digital Film Technology GmbH rights which have accrued prior to such date. The Licensee shall return the Licensed Software and any copies thereof and documentation relating thereto to Digital Film Technology GmbH at the Licensee's expense immediately upon the termination of this Agreement. The covenants of Licensee contained in Article 3 and 4 hereof shall remain binding despite termination of this Agreement. The warranty contained in Article 7 hereof shall terminate upon the expiration or preceding termination of this Agreement.

7. Copyright Indemnification

Digital Film Technology GmbH warrants that, to the best of its knowledge, the Licensed Software does not infringe any third party copyright. However if Digital Film Technology GmbH must acknowledge, that the Licensed Software does infringes a copyright, or if it is so held in an irrevocable ruling by a court of law in a legal action against Digital Film Technology GmbH, then Digital Film Technology GmbH shall at its option, either (a) secure Licensee's right to continue using the Licensed Software, (b) replace or modify the Licensed Software to make it non-infringing so long as such replacement or modification does not materially affect the total performance of the Licensed Software, or (c) if neither of the foregoing alternatives is reasonably available to Digital Film Technology GmbH, accept return of such Licensed Software and, after deduction of a reasonable charge for the time Licensee did make use of the Licensed Software, refund to Licensee the fee specified in Article 2 above, paid by Licensee for the Licensed Software so returned. Digital Film Technology GmbH shall have no liability for any claim of copyright infringement based on (1) use of other than a current unaltered release of the Licensed Software available from Digital Film Technology GmbH, if such infringement would have been avoided by the use of such current unaltered release, or (2) use or combination of the Licensed Software with software or equipment not supplied by Digital Film Technology GmbH. The foregoing states the entire liability of Digital Film Technology GmbH with respect to infringement of any copyrights by the Licensed Software or any parts thereof.

8. Warranty

Subject to the provisions defined herein Digital Film Technology GmbH warrants, for a period of 6 (Six) months from the date of factory shipment, that the Licensed Software will conform substantially to Digital Film Technology GmbH applicable published licensed software product data which are in effect on the date of licensing and may be furnished to the Licensee. except for the express warranty herein, Digital Film Technology GmbH grants no warranties either express, implied, statutory or other warranties on the Licensed Software, including but not limited to all implied warranties of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose. In the event that, based on documented and reproducible evidence, the Licensed Software does not conform to the said licensed software product data, Digital Film Technology GmbH will, at its option, either (a) replace or modify the Licensed Software so that it conforms with such product data, or (b) accept return of the licensed software from licensee and credit to licensee the fee specified on the cover, paid by licensee for the licensed software. Digital Film Technology GmbH makes no warranty:

(1) as to defects in Licensed Software other than those which materially affect performance in accordance with the applicable printed product data mentioned above;

(2) as to defects which can be avoided by operational work arounds;

(3) as to defects that appear in the Licensed Software used in violation of the license granted herein; or

(4) as to defects that appear in third party softwares

(5) that Licensed Software will operate uninterrupted or error free, or that licensed software functions will meet licensee's requirements. in no event shall Digital Film Technology GmbH be liable for indirect, special, or consequential damages arising out of the use or operation of the Licensed Software. In no event shall Digital Film Technology GmbH liability exceed the license fee paid by licensee pursuant to this Agreement.

9. Waiver

Subject to the provisions of Articles 7 and 8 above, the Licensee expressly waives all claims against Digital Film Technology GmbH and agrees to hold Digital Film Technology GmbH exempt from any liability arising from the use of the Licensed Software, unless the Licensee proves that such liability is solely attributable to the gross negligence or willful intent of Digital Film Technology GmbH.

10. Confidentiality

The Licensee hereby acknowledges and agrees that the Software and Documentation constitute and contain valuable proprietary products and trade secrets of Digital Film Technology GmbH, embodying substantial creative efforts and confidential information, ideas, and expressions. Accordingly, the Licensee agrees to treat (and take precaution to ensure that its employees treat) the Software and Documentation as confidential in accordance with the requirements below:

Each party agrees to keep confidential all confidential information disclosed to it by the other party in accordance herewith, and to protect the confidentiality thereof in the same manner it protects the confidentiality of similar information and data of its own; provided, however, that neither party shall have any such obligation with respect to use of disclosure to others, not parties to this agreement, of such confidential information can be established as: (a) have been known publicly; (b) have been known generally in the industry before communication by the disclosing party to the recipient, (c) have become known publicly, without fault on the part of the recipient, subsequent to disclosure by the disclosing party; (d) have been known otherwise by the recipient before communication by the disclosing party; or (e) have been received by the recipient without any obligation of confidentiality from a source (other than the disclosing party) lawfully having possession of such information. The Licensee's obligation under this Article 10 will remain in effect following the termination of this Agreement or any license granted under this agreement for whatever reason.

11. Export

Unless explicitly approved by Digital Film Technology GmbH

in writing, the Licensed Software proper as delivered by Digital Film Technology GmbH may not be exported to countries other than those for which it was ordered. If Licensee does not comply with this stipulation, Digital Film Technology GmbH is entitled to claim damages and to cancel this agreement or any other confirmed order or agreement. The foregoing does not apply to countries of the European Community.

Should the Licensed Software of this agreement be subject to the rules of the "Aussenwirtschaftsgesetz" of the Federal Republic of Germany, COCOM-Rules or the US Export Administration Regulations, the Licensee undertakes to comply with the said rules and regulations.

12. Miscellaneous

(a) This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between Digital Film Technology GmbH and the Licensee with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement and Digital Film Technology GmbH shall not be liable to the Licensee for loss arising from or in connection with any representations, agreements, statements or undertakings made prior to the date of this Agreement. A copy of this Agreement must be available to Digital Film Technology

GmbH for inspection during normal working hours at the Location specified therein.

(b) No modification of this Agreement shall be valid unless in writing and signed by duly authorized representatives of both parties.

(c) Licensee shall not assign this Agreement or any right hereunder to any other person or entity without the prior written consent of Digital Film Technology GmbH. Subject to the foregoing prohibition against assignment, this Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the successors and assigns of the parties hereto. Digital Film Technology GmbH may, however, delegate the exercise of rights and the performance of one or more of its obligations under this Agreement to its affiliated companies, provided that the delegating Party shall remain responsible for ensuring that such obligations are performed in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.

(d) This Agreement shall be considered as having been signed and entered into in Germany and the construction and performance of this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of Germany.

(e) Whenever Digital Film

Technology GmbH has acquired the (rights to use and/or sublicense) Licensed Software from a third party supplier/vendor (hereinafter „Supplier“) by way of license or other transaction in which Supplier retains rights to the Licensed Software, any reference to Digital Film Technology GmbH in Articles 1 and 3 of these Conditions to this Agreement shall be deemed to be a reference to Digital Film Technology GmbH and/or Supplier. The Licensee agrees to indemnify Digital Film Technology GmbH for any claims by the Supplier which arises out of the Licensee's breach of this Agreement.

(f) The Licensee shall hold Digital Film Technology GmbH exempt from any liability arising out of any unauthorized use of the Licensed Software.
